

Hello AGAPSS!

We have been on a short hiatus from the Tuesday Topic series with the beginning of the fall term, but are ready to get the ball rolling once again.

Opportunity to write an Article

First, one of our fellow Knowledge Communities, Student Affairs working with and in Academic Affairs (SAPAA) is requesting our help. They are looking for a professional in our KC to write an article for their newsletter on successful partnerships between your office and academic affairs units. I know that many of our KC membership have positions with-in academic departments so this article may be very easy for you to write.

This article is a brief, 700-900 words and just a brief overview of how you developed your partnerships and what has been successful about these partnerships. If you are interested in writing an article for the SAPAA newsletter, please email us at agapss1@gmail.com.

Tuesday Topic:

In our past Tuesday Topics, we asked you to comment on your institution's alcohol policy, orientation programs and successful partnerships.

This week, Our AGPASS Co-Chair Elect, Sarah Minnis from Texas A&M University, would like to ask you about your students' transition experience to campus.

What challenges have you seen students' work through, especially first year students in transitioning to a new academic climate/year and outside responsibilities (work, family, etc...)? And, how have you and the University helped the students work through these challenges?

Please feel free to respond to one or all of these questions on our AGAPSS Blog. Check below for how to post on our site.

How to submit information or review past information

To view our previous submissions, or to further the knowledge of our KC membership by answering this week's question, please go to: <http://www.naspa.org/kc/agapss/tuesdaytopic.cfm>. Just click on the link that leads you to our AGAPSS Blog.

We also would like to encourage you to send us your questions to be sent out in the "Tuesday Topic" forum. To do so, please email agapss1@gmail.com.

Thank you again for your participation on our "Tuesday Topic" program and we look forward to hearing from you. Also, stay tuned for our fall newsletter!

Take care,
