

1. Attend the annual national conference.
2. Contact your regional chapter's vice president and ask to be appointed to the advisory board.
3. E-mail the chair of the national or regional knowledge community that interests you and volunteer to help.
4. Participate in a NASPA electronic or paper survey.
5. Offer to host a drive-in workshop on your campus.
6. Present a workshop at the national or regional conference.
7. Attend your NASPA regional conference.
8. Submit an article to your regional newsletter.
9. Write an article for the NASPA Forum newsletter.
10. Submit a research proposal and funding request to the NASPA Foundation.
11. Make a donation to the NASPA Foundation.
12. Sign up your campus for a NASPA video-, tele-, or online conference.
13. Attend a professional development program offered by NASPA.
14. Send a staff member to a professional development program offered by NASPA.
15. Call the NASPA President or Executive Director and share an idea you have for making the association even better.
16. Attend the annual business meeting at the national conference to celebrate the new leadership of our association.
17. Read NetResults, NASPA's online publication.
18. Write an article, column, or review for NetResults.
19. Read the online version of NASPA Leadership Exchange.
20. Run for Regional Vice President in your region.
21. Sign up to be a member of the NASPA "Friends of Public Policy" listserv.
22. Contact the President Elect and ask to be appointed to a leadership role.
23. Nominate a colleague for a regional or national award.
24. Submit an article to the NASPA Journal.
25. Ask to be considered for a spot on the editorial board.
26. Be a mentor to a Minority Undergraduate Fellow.
27. Host a MUFPP Fellow for a summer internship.
28. Have someone nominate you for NASPA President.
29. Pay for a grad student's NASPA membership or send them to a conference.
30. Attend your region's new professional institute.
31. Attend your region's mid level professional institute.
32. Attend the Annual Stevens Institute in July.
33. Attend NASPA's International Symposium prior to the national conference.
34. Attend the Alice Manicur Symposium for Women Aspiring To Be Senior Student Affairs Officers [or send someone].
35. Suggest great keynote speakers and cutting-edge topics for future conferences, workshops, and publications.
36. Participate in one of NASPA's nine international exchange programs.
37. Participate in a workshop offered by the National Academy.
38. Volunteer to work on the annual conference.
39. Buy and wear a NASPA shirt, hat, pin, or other logo item.
40. Sign up to volunteer by filling out a Volunteer Interest Form on the NASPA website.
41. Volunteer to be a program reviewer for a NASPA regional or national conference.
42. Participate in a NASPA online Discussion Forum.
43. Attend a knowledge community reception at the national conference.
44. Volunteer to help with registration at a regional or national conference.
45. Watch for opportunities to volunteer in the NASPA Forum.

Adapted from Shannon Ellis, "Let's Get Active!" in the NASPA Forum, January/February 2001