

Vision	NASPA is the leading voice for the student affairs profession worldwide.
Mission	To be the principal source for leadership, scholarship, professional development, and advocacy for student affairs.
Who We Are	NASPA is the leading association for the advancement, health, and sustainability of the student affairs profession. We serve a full range of professionals who provide programs, experiences, and services that cultivate student learning and success in concert with the mission of our colleges and universities. Founded in 1919, NASPA comprises more than 12,000 members in all 50 states, 29 countries, and 8 U.S. Territories.
What We Do	NASPA serves its members through a wide range of services, including outstanding publications; a variety of professional development opportunities for student affairs individuals at all levels within the profession; and a comprehensive, content-rich website.
Who We Serve	NASPA members serve a variety of functions and roles, including the vice president and dean for student life, as well as professionals working within housing and residence life; student unions; student activities; counseling; health services; career development; orientation; enrollment management; disability resources; multicultural student services; and retention and assessment.
Guiding Principles	Integrity: Committed to high moral principles exhibiting authentic, honest, just, and ethical behavior. Innovation: Continuously seeking improvement through new and creative approaches. Inclusion: Seeking ways to ensure access, voice, acknowledgement, opportunity, and participation at all levels. Inquiry: Supporting research and scholarship to add to the knowledge base of the profession and ensure that data informs practice.