ADVERTISING GUIDELINES

1. Advertising will be accepted on a first-come, first-served basis.
2. In the event of non-payment, the Association shall have the right to hold the advertiser and/or its agency jointly and separately liable for such monies as are due and payable to the association. Rendering a bill to the advertiser's advertising agency shall not relieve the advertiser in the event of non-payment by the agency. Payment by the advertiser to its advertising agency will not constitute payment unless payment is actually received by association.
3. The advertiser and its advertising agency shall be responsible, jointly and severally, for all content of advertisements (including text, illustrations, trademarks, and other material) and shall defend, indemnify and hold the association harmless from and against loss, expense or other liability, including the association's actual attorney's fee, resulting from any claims or suits for libel, violation of rights of privacy, plagiarism, copyright infringement and any other claims that may arise out of the publication of such advertisements.
4. All advertising is subject to the association's approval. The association reserves the right to reject advertising for any reason, including advertising which the association deems inappropriate or incompatible with the publication's standards.
5. The Association is not liable if, for any reason, it becomes necessary to omit an advertisement.
6. The Association's liability for any error will not exceed the charge for the advertisement in question.
7. The Association reserves the right to place the word "advertisement" with any copy, which, in the association's opinion, resembles editorial matter.
8. No conditions (printed or otherwise) appearing on space orders, billing instructions or copy instructions which conflict with the Association's stated policies will be binding on the association.
9. The association is not liable for failure to perform or delay in performance caused by strikes, accidents, fires, acts of God, or other contingencies beyond the publisher's control.
