

Undergraduate Symposium

Friday, November 3, 2017
University of Florida

On Friday, November 3rd, NASPA-FL will be host the 6th Annual Undergraduate Symposium for undergraduate students interested in pursuing a career in student affairs. The purpose of this event is to introduce undergraduate student leaders to the student affairs profession and get prepared for graduate school.

NASPA-FL
UNDERGRADUATE SYMPOSIUM
November 3, 2017

Interactive conference sessions
Mock interviews to prepare for graduate school interviews
Meet faculty from higher education programs
Learn how to choose the right graduate program for you
Get a free one year membership to NASPA

The NASPA-FL 6th Annual Undergraduate Symposium is for undergraduate students interested in pursuing a career in student affairs. The purpose of this event is to introduce undergraduate student leaders to the student affairs profession and get prepared for graduate school.

LOCATION
University of Florida
Reitz Union

REGISTER NOW
<https://www.naspa.org/events/1783FloridaDriveInConference>

CONTACT
Heather Kenney
heather.a.kenney@fsj.edu

Undergraduate Symposium fee includes NASPA Membership, continental breakfast, lunch, and snack on Friday.

8:00am—9:00am	Conference Registration
8:00am – 9:00as	Continental Breakfast
9:00am—9:20am	Welcome & Opening Session
9:20am – 10:00am	Keynote Speaker
10:10am - 11:00am	Educational Session 1
11:10am - 12:00pm	Educational Session 2
12:00pm – 1:10pm	Lunch & Graduate School Fair
1:15pm – 1:45pm	Mock Interview Preparation Session
1:50pm - 2:40pm	Educational Session 4 & Mock Interviews
2:50pm – 3:40pm	Educational Session 5 & Mock Interviews
3:30pm – 5:00pm	Complimentary Mid-Afternoon Break
3:50pm - 4:30pm	NASPA-FL Awards, Case Study Winners Presentation, and Closing

Updated 9/29/17