SA: VOICES FROM THE FIELD is a NASPA podcast “for SA pros by SA Pros.” Episode 2, titled "Working with Adult and Graduate Students," features Dana Bozeman, AGAPSS chair and Director of Diversity and Inclusion at UChicagoGrad, University of Chicago!

This week on SA Voices from the field you will meet Dana Bozeman, chair of the AGAPSS Knowledge Community within NASPA. Dana Bozeman will share some great tips on how to work with Adult and Graduate Students to help you to examine best practices in working with this population of students. This is a conversation that you will not want to miss as there are so many new non-traditional students on all of our campuses and all student affairs professionals need to understand the challenges and concerns that impact this population of students.

Graduate and Professional Student Appreciation Week Celebration at UNC-Chapel Hill

UNC-Chapel Hill had a really packed week of events to acknowledge, celebrate, and support graduate and professional students during Graduate and Professional Student Appreciation Week (GPSAW), April 1-5! It was a really great opportunity to partner with our academic programs and campus partners, especially since they had the freedom to be creative and unique in showing their appreciation. In case AGAPSS folks are interested in checking out UNC-Chapel Hill's GPSAW activities this year, here's our link: <https://gradschool.unc.edu/events/gpsaw/>. We're excited to continue growing this event and getting other institutions on board to expand the recognition of this week domestically and perhaps even beyond!
