Learning Objectives

- Develop basic skills in working with different types and sources of law, legal reasoning, legal structures related to institutions of higher education, and the U.S. legal system.
- Develop skills in how to find, read, analyze, and update cases, statutes, and administrative regulations.
- Develop effective strategies for working with legal counsel.
- Understand the interaction between law and policy in the higher education context.
- Demonstrate the ability to identify, articulate, and apply core legal rules and concepts relating to the practice of student affairs.
- Develop the ability to identify and work with key features of appellate court decisions, statutes, and regulations that impact higher education. This includes demonstrating an ability to work with the "IRAC" heuristic and organizing legal and law-like analysis.
- Develop the ability to discuss and describe legal concepts, issues, and rules succinctly and efficiently.
- Develop the ability to recognize key "facts" that are known, or must be discovered, that will augment or hinder their posture in contested situations.
- Demonstrate an understanding of the appropriate and inappropriate use of law as a tool for dispute resolution.
- Develop skills in working with combined issues of law and policy.
- Develop the ability to engage in constructive dialogue with others regarding contentious issues of law and policy. Respect for ideas of others that one does not personally accept is necessary to learn and conceptualize legal topics.
- Demonstrate the ability to recognize and work with issues of tolerance, diversity, and inclusion from a law and policy perspective.
- Demonstrate the ability to reason and communicate objectively regarding issues of law and policy.
   This includes the demonstrated ability to provide carefully reasoned elaboration for positions, opinions, and the like.

Meals and Breaks

As part of your tuition, a Welcome Dinner (not including alcoholic beverages) will be provided on the first evening of the program. On each subsequent day of the program, breakfast and lunch will be provided and dinner will be on your own. If you did not already do so at the time you registered, please inform Lucy Fort at NASPA (Ifort@naspa.org) as soon as possible if you have any special dietary needs.

Required Materials

The required materials for the course are 1) Peter Lake, The Foundations of Higher Education Law & Policy: Basic Legal Rules, Concepts and Principles for Student Affairs (2011), 2) Peter Lake, Beyond Discipline – Managing the Modern Higher Education Environment (2009), and 3) Secrets of Basic Tort Law (audio files). These materials will be provided to you a few weeks before the course begins and you should bring the books with you to the live event. Additional items will be included in a special "NASPA members only area" online or as handouts during the program. These materials are included in the price of your tuition. Students are also encouraged to purchase Peter Lake, The Rights and Responsibilities of the Modern University: The Rise of the Facilitator University (Carolina Academic Press 2013), as some optional readings from this text are suggested.

Pre-Program Reading/Assignments

Course Texts: Prior to the start of the Certificate Program, please read The Foundations of Higher Education Law & Policy in its entirety and read chapters 1-3 (at a minimum) of Beyond Discipline.

Online Resources: Prior to the start of the Certificate Program, please listen to the Secrets of Basic Torts (approximately 6 hours of digital audio material). The NASPA website also contains extensive reading materials such as cases, regulatory materials, etc., that you should familiarize yourself with prior to the start of the Certificate Program. Instructions for accessing this material online will be sent via email.

Preparation and Class Attendance

Attendance, and quality of attendance, are essential for success in the Certificate Program. This program will provide unique learning opportunities that cannot be replicated simply from notes or after-class time spent with professors. Classes will not be recorded. Should you have an emergency that forces you to miss class, please contact the lead instructor as soon as possible. Quality of attendance is also a key for success. Temporary absences from class may be necessary from time to time for participants to handle pressing matters. Cell phones and similar devices should be in the silent or vibrate modes during class time.

Participants should endeavor to complete all required reading before class. Specific readings are assigned for each day of the program; these items have been provided to you via hard copy (books) or as web links/.PDF documents on the NASPA website. It is important for you to complete the preprogram assignments listed above prior to the beginning of the Certificate Program. Assignments listed in the right-hand column below are the readings associated with that day's session, and should be reviewed before you arrive at the Certificate Program and then briefly reviewed again the evening before the material will be discussed.

Examination/Assessment

The final examination will be open book and open note. However, once the examination is distributed, participants may not collaborate with any other participant or third party, or contact any Instructor. The examination will be assessed on a scale of High Competency, Competency, Competency Emerging, and Not Competent. To receive a certificate in the course, a student must achieve a High Competency or Competency grade on the final examination. The examination will be released electronically at 12:00 p.m. ET on Monday, June 13, 2016 and must be returned by 5:00 p.m. ET on Monday, July 18, 2016. Students will be notified of exam results no later than midnight ET on Friday, September 30, 2016.

Should a student receive a grade of Competency Emerging or Not Competent, the student will be asked to resubmit the final examination upon feedback from the Lead Instructor. The student must then receive a High Competency or Competency grade upon resubmission. There will be only one opportunity for resubmission.

Extensions on the final exam may be given if extreme circumstances arise. Extensions are at the sole discretion of the Lead Instructor.
