

2018 Gwendolyn Dungy Leadership Institute (DLI)

June 8 – June 13 | University of Illinois at Chicago

Student Schedule

The Dungy Leadership Institute (DLI) is an inclusive learning community designed to socialize NUFP Fellows within the profession. As participants in the DLI, NUFP Fellows will:

- Gain foundational knowledge of the history and functions of student affairs and higher education
- Gain knowledge of contemporary issues in higher education
- Participate in intergroup dialogue around issues of equity and social justice
- Collaborate with peers to research and present ethical resolutions to current administrative and leadership issues in student affairs
- Reflect on and articulate the influence of personal identities and histories on effective student affairs leadership
- Engage in professional networking with student affairs faculty and administrators
