

2016-17 NASPA Community Colleges Division Symposium Series
STUDENT SERVICES PROFESSIONALS AT THE NEXUS OF LEADING EQUITY & SUCCESS IN THE CALIFORNIA COMMUNITY COLLEGES

Mt. San Antonio College
Friday, January 27, 2017

Program Outline

The theme of the symposium at Mt. San Antonio College is the role and responsibility of student services professionals in establishing and addressing equity and success strategies in community colleges. Recognized leaders in the field of higher education, specializing on community colleges, will address pertinent topics of interest and concern related to student development, diversity, inclusion, and social justice.

Learning Outcomes

Participants will:

- contextualize the community college experience in the history of higher education;
- apply student development theory and adult learning theory to current practice;
- develop multicultural competence and envision ways services can be enhanced or expanded to meet the needs of the diverse community college population;
- explore unique and innovative ways in which individuals can advance the field and work of community college student affairs professionals;
- connect the Professional Competencies for Student Affairs Practitioners and NASPA's Focus Areas to the professional development of community college student affairs administrators; and
- utilize the NASPA Community Colleges Division to serve as a resource to support student affairs work and/or development at community colleges.
