Kristelle Aisaka

Kristelle Aisaka is a Campus Advisor at The Jed Foundation, helping institutions develop comprehensive strategies to guide strategic planning tailored to their diverse communities.

Laurel N. Donley, MS

Laurel N. Donley, MS has more than 14 years of experience in working with adolescent and college students in different settings, including community health departments and community coalitions to align prevention efforts. Kathryn has also served in public health roles at the University of Oregon and University of Northern Colorado. She has also served on the NASPA Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.

Kathryn Dailey

Kathryn Dailey, Associate Director of Health Promotion, has more than 14 years of experience in providing: monitoring, advocacy, crisis intervention and case management. Laurel is native to North Carolina and has lived in the Asheville area most of my life and love what it has to offer to developing artists.

Katell Guellec, LICSW

Katell Guellec is a clinical social worker and has more than 14 years of experience in working with adolescent and college students in different settings, including community health departments and community coalitions to align prevention efforts. Kathryn has also served in public health roles at the University of Oregon and University of Northern Colorado. She has also served on the NASPA Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.

Kathleen A. Dailey

She has published on emerging research, implementing evidence-based interventions, increase student, faculty, and staff skills, and collaborate with local public health systems to align prevention efforts. Kathryn has also served in public health roles at the University of Oregon and University of Northern Colorado. She has also served on the NASPA Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.

Erin L. Hayes

Erin L. Hayes

Erin L. Hayes is a recent graduate of the University of Colorado Boulder with her B.A. in Higher Education, and is passionate about helping students navigate challenges. Erin has also worked in several other aspects of campus life including student development, counseling, and student engagement before beginning her graduate studies in California.

Sharon L. Mitchell, Ph.D

Julia Rose is the Associate Director for Residence Education at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi, where she is a member of the SJU Campus Team and Alcohol and Drug Education task force. She is the current chair for Sponsored programs for ACPA 2020, and has served as the director of the campus Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.

M. Dolores Cimini, Ph.D.

M. Dolores Cimini, Ph.D. is a New York State licensed psychologist and Director of Behavioral Health Promotion and Applied Research at the University at Albany, State University of New York. She is also a Senior Researcher at the University at Albany, NYS Office of Science, Technology, and Innovation.

She has more than 20 years of experience in research and practice focusing on barriers to college students seeking mental health services on campus.

Dr. Sharon Mitchell, psychologist, is the Senior Director of Student Wellness and Director of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. She is the current chair for Sponsored programs for ACPA 2020, and has served as the director of the campus Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.

Dr. Sharon Mitchell, psychologist, is the Senior Director of Student Wellness and Director of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. She is the current chair for Sponsored programs for ACPA 2020, and has served as the director of the campus Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.

Katell Guellec is a clinical social worker and has more than 14 years of experience in working with adolescent and college students in different settings, including community health departments and community coalitions to align prevention efforts. Kathryn has also served in public health roles at the University of Oregon and University of Northern Colorado. She has also served on the NASPA Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.

Dr. Sharon Mitchell, psychologist, is the Senior Director of Student Wellness and Director of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative at Texas A&M University-Corpus Christi. She is the current chair for Sponsored programs for ACPA 2020, and has served as the director of the campus Alcohol and Other Drug Knowledge Community Region V representative.