NASPA announces 2014 election results

Alfred University VP of Student Affairs named Region II Director

WASHINGTON, D.C. — The leadership of NASPA-Student Affairs Administrators in Higher Education, is pleased to announce the results from the January 2014 election.

Kathy Woughter, vice president for student affairs at Alfred University, was elected Region II Director. She take over from Deb Moriarty when her term ends in March of 2015. Woughter is currently the Small Colleges and Universities Division Representative for Region II.

Woughter has been the Vice President for Student Affairs at Alfred University in New York since 2004. Prior to being appointed as VP, she was the Director of the Career Development Center at AU, and she worked in Residence Life and coached men's swimming at Alfred State College before that.

She has a master's degree in Counselor Education from Alfred and a bachelor's degree in Biology and Secondary Education from Geneseo. Kathy received the Abigail Allen award in 2011 for outstanding service to women at Alfred University, and has won an Alfie in for outstanding staff contribution to student life.

In the community, Kathy is on the Jones Memorial Hospital board and has served as a six-year board member on the Wellsville Area Chamber of Commerce, including two years as its President. She is also the regional board of directors for the National Association of Student Personnel Administrators and served as the 2012 Conference Chair.

She is married to Bob Woughter, also a Geneseo and Alfred U alum, and has two sons, Zach and Dan.
