2015 – 2018 NASPA Strategic Plan

Introduction

In July 2014, the NASPA Board of Directors began the journey to review both the current standing and future direction of the organization. The 2015 – 2018 NASPA Strategic Plan addresses the alignment of professional development, advocacy, research, and scholarship across a specific set of goals that will guide the Association’s agenda for the next three years. The results were guided by member input and feedback gathered from individuals in regions, divisions, knowledge communities, and all key constituent groups.

The Board reaffirmed the mission, vision, and guiding principles for the Association established in July 2011. They were deliberate and focused on creating goals that are inclusive, aspirational, and sustainable. These goals and objectives delineate a culture of excellence through member involvement, adaptability to the changing nature of higher education, and a deep commitment to diversity, social justice, and inclusion. The following strategic plan was approved at by the NASPA Board of Directors at its March 2015 meeting.
