

NASPA FOUNDATION

ANNUAL REPORT 2017-18

Bette Simmons, *NASPA Foundation Board Chair,
Vice President of Student Development & Enrollment
Management And Interim Vice President of Academic Affairs
County College of Morris*

“It is an honor to serve as the chair of the NASPA Foundation Board of Directors where I have the responsibility and opportunity to advance NASPA’s mission and legacy through our investment in the future of the profession.

It is humbling to be able to provide scholarships for graduate students and new professionals to attend NASPA’s professional development offerings, including the NASPA Annual Conference. Learning from the work accomplished by recipients of our Innovation Grants confirms we are truly making a difference on individual campuses and thus in the field at large. And finally, honoring our colleagues for their contributions to student affairs through NASPA annual awards funded by the NASPA Foundation, brings our impact full circle. Our donors make all of this possible through their generous contributions year after year. To all of you who have given to the Foundation previously, thank you. Thank you for believing in our work, and enabling more opportunities to exist for NASPA members.

MISSION AND VISION

The mission of the NASPA Foundation is to advance NASPA's mission and legacy.

Driven by the same Guiding Principles as NASPA—Integrity, Inclusion, Innovation, and Inquiry—the NASPA Foundation is dedicated to advancing the student affairs profession and the individual professionals who continue to work within it. When you invest in the NASPA Foundation, you make a difference both for today and the future.

Donations support scholarships for NASPA members to attend conferences, grants to fund innovative campus programming, and awards to honor those who have made great contributions to the field of student affairs.

DIRECT IMPACT OF DONATIONS

2018 Jim
Rhatigan
Fellowship
Winner

“Attending the 2018 NASPA Annual Conference would not have happened if the NASPA Foundation did not select me as a Jim Rhatigan Fellowship recipient. Receiving these funds alleviated a huge financial burden off of me and I was able to enjoy my entire time without constant stress regarding cost. The NASPA Annual Conference is an environment that ensures future leaders in student affairs are achieving the proper preparation and networking with like-minded and successful professionals. Thank you to the NASPA Foundation and their donors for ensuring my success as a student affairs professional.”

Relius Johnson
*Residence Life Coordinator,
Louisiana State University and Mechanical College*

2018
Zenobia Hikes
Scholarship
Winner

“The Zenobia Hikes Scholarship made it possible for me to attend the Alice Manicur Symposium and as a result I became more determined to serve as a senior student affairs officer. The Zenobia Hikes Scholarship presented by the NASPA Foundation eliminated a barrier like state budget cuts and allowed me to expand my network of strong women in student affairs—a network that I have called on often since participating. It is support like this that will continue to positively impact the field.”

Gena Brooks Flynn
*Associate Dean for Student Affairs,
College of Education,
University of Illinois at Chicago*

Fall 2017
Innovation
Grant Winner
Program Title: *EWU
Loot Camp*

“ The NASPA Foundation Innovation Grant allowed us to work one-on-one with students to help them identify scholarships for college and gain financial awareness. The students said Loot Camp changed the way they thought about and planned for college. They said it made them feel like someone was watching out for them. Generous support from the NASPA Foundation has provided us with the space and drive to develop something that is not only having a positive impact, but where the work we are doing is becoming part of the fabric of our campus.”

Samantha Armstrong-Ash

Director for Budget & Administrative Services, Eastern Washington University

2018 Melvene
D. Hardee
Dissertation of the Year Winner

“ I truly believe being named the NASPA Foundation 2018 Melvene D. Hardee Dissertation of the Year Award winner was the highlight of my year as well as the highlight of my doctoral career. Achieving this recognition as well as being presented a monetary award was not only validation that I had constructed quality, award worthy work, but also confirmation that my research on the impacts of family culture on the racial identity of African American college students is important and timely. Thank you to the donors who made this award possible and for affirming the significant impact on recipients, their perception of their abilities, and their academic aspirations.”

Special Interest Funds

At the request of NASPA members, the Foundation created special interest funds designed to support NASPA's divisions, groups, and knowledge communities. The funds both provide an additional source of funding for the activities of these entities that relate to the mission of the Foundation and serve as a way for donors to direct their funds to the experiences they value most within NASPA. Groups with special interest funds have the flexibility to decide how to best use donor dollars in support of their goals, with most creating additional awards and scholarships.
